THANK YOU for considering employment with Kent County Levy Court. Our highly professional organization is committed to public service and meeting the needs of our citizens and visitors. We hope you find our extensive application process to be uncomplicated. Depending on the number of applications and any examination requirements, we strive to complete the entire hiring process within one month of the position closing. The County selects the best and most qualified candidate for each vacancy, without regard to familial or political affiliation or influence. If you have questions about Kent County's hiring procedures, please contact us. - Personnel Director

- * Mail or bring your completed application to the Kent County Personnel Office at the address listed above. The Personnel Office cannot be responsible for applications sent directly to departments, individuals or other public or private agencies or via e-mail.
- * Applications are only accepted for vacant positions received before the posted closing date. All applications are retained for a period of one calendar year from date of receipt. If you are interested in a future vacancy, you may contact the Personnel Office and request submission of this application. No supervisor or employee of Kent County has the authority to make a verbal offer of employment for any specific period of time or to make any agreement contrary to Kent County employment procedures.
- * Employees of Kent County are at will and may resign their employment at any time, although at least two weeks notice is required for payment of accrued vacation time, and employment and compensation can be terminated with or without cause, and with or without notice as provided in the Kent County Code, ordinances, policies, and/or procedures.
- * Kent County is an equal opportunity employer and will not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment in a manner that violates the law. Accommodations are available for applicants with disabilities in all phases of the application and employment process. Contact the Personnel Office for an auxiliary aid or service.
- * Kent County maintains a drug free workplace and will not tolerate the use, possession or distribution of illegal substances. All employees are required to abide by the County's drug-free workplace policy as well as all other policies, rules, and procedures.
- * Kent County requires all offers of employment to be extended with the following conditions: prospective employees are subject to a criminal background investigation and/or drug & alcohol use/abuse screening procedure, followed by a 6-month introductory period. After such qualified offer, the employee may be required to report any felony conviction(s) and provide details in writing, so that the nature of the crime can be assessed in a manner consistent with EEOC guidelines. A conviction may not disqualify you, but a false statement will. Note: Some positions require information about felony and misdemeanor convictions or deferred adjudication.
- * Kent County requires all male applicants born after January 1, 1960 to be registered with Selective Service.
